THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE J.CHELAMESWAR

AND

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE M.E.N.PATRUDU

W.P.NO.1885 OF 2006

ORDER: (Per Sri Justice J.Chelameswar)

This writ petition is taken up of a fax message dated 28.1.2006 sent by one Ghanta Nagamani alleging that her husband is illegally taken away by the Circle Inspector of Police, Palakole Circle, West Godavari District, five days prior to the issuance of the telegram.

By an order dated 20.2.2006 this Court directed the respondents to produce the alleged detenu Ghanta Venkanna in the Court.

Counter affidavit is filed by the Sub Inspector of Police, Palakole Town Police Station, West Godavari District. According to the additional counter-affidavit, the alleged detenu Ganta Venkanna is moving about freely. The detenu was produced before this Court on 22.2.2006.

We examined the alleged detenu. He admitted the fact that he has never been arrested. He stated before the Court that for a few days he was compelled to attend the police station and enquired whether he purchased any stolen property. The details of which may not be necessary. When enquired specifically by the Court whether there is any physical violence, the alleged detenu categorically stated that though he was not permitted to leave the police station, there was no physical violence against him.

In the circumstances, we do not see reason to proceed further with the Habeas Corpus petition. The petition is therefore closed. If the alleged detenu has any grievance, it is open for him to seek appropriate remedy available to him under law.
